The Amwaj Islander

Letter from the MD

Dear Amwaj Islanders,

Summer may finally be approaching despite the temperamental weather we have been having lately. With the dust subsiding and heat being turned up; outdoor barbeques, cold juices and fresh salads are signs of summer being here.

Given the high temperatures that we experience in Bahrain over the summer please take the necessary precautions to keep yourself and your loved ones in tip top shape. Keep hydrated by drinking plenty of fluids, slather on sunscreen with a high spf, eat a lot of salads and fresh fruits that naturally contain water eg. watermelon (nearly 92% water) as this will replenish water lost through sweating, and keep some water or rose water in a spray bottle in the fridge that you can spray on yourself to cool down.

Numerous events have been scheduled during the upcoming months (please refer to the events page for details). The last Amwaj Market will be held on April 7 where we hope to see you all down there. If the weather remains a little temperamental, outdoor events may end up being postponed or cancelled however there are plenty of great indoor events taking place continuously in Amwaj, where all details are available in the 'upcoming events' section of this newsletter.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your family a Happy Easter.

Regards,
Jameel Almatrook
Managing Director, Amwaj Islands

Position/Company:
Managing Partner,
Mei N Yu Restaurant
(pronounced: me and you)

Nationality: Malaysian

Can you tell us about your background? I have been in the Food & Beverage industry for more than ten years in Bahrain. Prior to that I was in working in Real Estate. I have travelled extensively and have a degree in economics. I have always wanted to be involved with the F&B business and when I got the opportunity, I grabbed it and have not looked back. I love it.

What is Mei N Yu? Good question. It is a restaurant/bistro that serves great food and drinks in a relaxed and comfortable atmosphere with friendly staff. It is fine dining (not a fast food outlet) where food is prepared fresh when you order it.

How did the idea for the restaurant come about? The idea was my partner, Nadeem Asgharali and his wife Monica's, who had the inspiration from the time he was in the USA and wanted to open it here

What were your biggest challenges while establishing the place? Red tape mainly and of course construction delays.

Why did you choose The Lagoon/Amwaj as the location for Mei N Yu? We felt, and still do, that The Lagoon is the place to be, it has so much to offer and will one day be a place where people will flock to for an evening out when the other outlets open. Nowhere else in Bahrain has got the atmosphere and setting that The Lagoon has.

What makes Mei N Yu different than other restaurants in The Lagoon and in Bahrain? Visit us and you will know what! Besides no one else serves international cuisine like we do.

What are your future plans for Mei N Yu? Still on the drawing board but plans are definitely on.

What can your customers expect when they pay you a visit? Great food, super ambiance and friendly staff but that's not all! Visit us and see for yourself.

Can you tell us about your family? I am married to an amazing woman Meher Parakh who has supported me throughout the ups and downs and I have two great boys Ryan & Daniel who were both born here & who have

Mei N Yu Restaurant

Mei n Yu opened its doors to the public, along with its sister concern, Persian Room, on 1st July 2010 with a soft opening. The official opening was held in September 2011 with resounding success where more than 300 people turned to enjoy the food, experience and join in our celebrations.

The menu at Mei n Yu is continental with something for everyone. Starters include a selection of soups, salads and some favourites like the Chicken lettuce wrap and home smoke hammmour pat . A variety of sandwiches and our famous burgers are also available including the steak panini. The main courses vary from seafood, grills, poultry to pastas. The rib eye and fillet steaks are winners with our regulars, not to mention the crayfish thermidore and the magret of duck.

For a relaxed evening of fine dining with super views of the Lagoon you cannot beat Mei n Yu restaurant, which also boasts al fresco dining on the patio in comfortable sofa seating now that the weather is just right to enjoy your favourite beverage and the lagoon breeze.

Look out for our theme nights and guest musicians on our Facebook group - Mei n Yu at The Lagoon or just come down and enjoy our hospitality. Get our take away menu for free home delivery in Amwaj.

Love Amwaj Campaign!

On the 9th of March, one of our residents organized a 'Love Amwaj' clean-up campaign and successfully gathered a group of like-minded residents at the kite surfer's beach near the Marina.

There was an exceptionally happy atmosphere amidst the participants, many of whom first discovered this lovely beach, made a few new friends, and some even had their 'workout for the day' whilst enjoying the natural delights of Amwaj. The main purpose of the cleanup campaign was to raise people's awareness of environmental issues and teaching our children how to take care of the natural world.

Marine litter has a huge impact on the marine environment. Statistics show that more than 1 million birds and 100,000 marine mammals die each year from entanglement in or ingestion of marine litter. The clean-up successfully collected over 30 bags of litter from the beach.

Special thanks go to GCC cleaning company for their kind support in providing bags and bins; in addition to their four staff members who actively participated and helped clean up the beach.

Anastasia, the clean-up campaign organizer, is very grateful to everyone who showed interest, in particular those that came to help. For more information on the campaign please email amwajlove@gmail.com.

Alosra 'Think Local' Campaign A Success!

Not long after launching its 'Think Local' initiative, Alosra Supermarket received rave reviews from customers in the store as well as via social networking sites such as twitter. "The response we have received has really been phenomenal," said Jaffar Al Asfor, Alosra General Manager. "Shoppers actually approach members of our team and congratulate them on introducing such a novel and timely initiative. Not only has 'Think Local' resulted in an increase in sales, but the boost in employee morale is indescribable. Our employees are proud to be associated with a company that cares about the community, and more importantly the country."
